

Young Diplomats: Global Affairs & Diplomacy Summer Camp – Tentative Schedule

Time	Monday 6/4/18	Tuesday 6/5/18	Wednesday 6/6/18	Thursday 6/7/18	Friday 6/8/18
9:00	Welcome address, orientation, and campus tour	The World around US and Major Global Issues (continued)	American Foreign Policy Process	The Art & Practice of Diplomacy	Diplomacy Simulation
10:00
11:00	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch
12:00
1:00	The World Around US and Major Global Issues	Introduction to American Foreign Policy	Cyber Security, Conflict, and Diplomacy	Prepare for Diplomacy Simulation	Closing ceremony and awards
2:00
3:00
4:30

Lead instructors: Professor Richard H. Sindelar III, assistant professor of International Studies and retired Foreign Service Officer (22 years). He served in Israel, Egypt, Washington DC, Canada, Mexico, and Cuba. Professor Eric Botts, adjunct professor of International Studies, cyber security consultant, and retired Foreign Service Officer (ten years). He served in the Dominican Republic, South Korea, Ireland, Washington DC, and the Bahamas.

This camp culminates with training and implementation of a diplomacy simulation. Students will be presented with a historical problem/conflict and, representing the relevant countries, factions, and/or international organizations, seek to reach a diplomatic solution.